MIDDIES' CREW TENTATIVELY SELECTED;
SHOW CLASS AT EARLY SEASON PRACTICE

With the coming of fair weather, sporting interest at Annapolis and West Point centers on the crews which are to represent them at the great June race.

For months the men who are trying for places have been training in the gymnasiums preparatory to actual work in the shells. Now the hard work is on in earnest and every candidate is hopeful that he will win a place. The Middles' crew this year is captained by the veteran Greenman, and a first crew has been tentatively picked. The above picture shows this eight in action.

ARE MARRIED
EASTER DAYMiss Carrie B. Lindsay and Mr. Tyco Brady Are United.

The marriage of Miss Carrie B. Lindsay and Mr. Tyco Brady was celebrated yesterday morning at nine o'clock at the parsonage residence of Rev. George M. Rourke, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. The young were unattended.

Mrs. Brady is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Lindsay who reside on Franklin avenue and is a pretty and attractive girl. For some time she has been employed at the printing office of Alfred Horn. Mr. Brady is employed at the Turner's grocery. He has many friends here.

DEATH CALLS
AGED WOMANMrs. Eleanor Her Dies
Sunday at Noon.

Mrs. Eleanor Her, widow of Esch Her, died at her home on south 11th street, Sunday at 12 o'clock, noon. She had been sick for about one year, of complicated diseases and stomach trouble.

Mrs. Her was born in Lynchburg, Virginia, in 1832, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mills. She was united in marriage with Mr. Her, November 8, 1849. Mr. Her died about 45 years ago. In 1879, Mrs. Her came to Marion to make her home and had lived here ever since. She is survived by five children who are: Joseph, George E. and Harry Her, all of Marion, F. M. Her, of Denver, and a granddaughter, Mrs. F. L. Miller. She was a member of the Central Christian church, ever since her youth.

Funeral services will be held, Thursday afternoon, at 2:00 o'clock, at the home at 238 High street. Rev. A. C. Giesberger, of Columbus, will officiate and burial will be made in Marion cemetery.

MILITIAMEN ARRESTED
FOR LAW VIOLATIONThree Members of Co. D. Bound Over to Captain Richardson.

Three members of Co. D, 4th Infantry, Ohio National Guard, Seth E. Moore, Pearl S. Eaton and John W. Langret, have been arrested and bound over to Capt. E. O. Richardson of the Marion company on the charge of having violated orders and the law for the government of the Ohio National guards. The exact nature of their alleged violations were not described in the complaint. By a recent act of the State of Ohio added the following paragraph to Section 3067 of the revised statutes of the state which reads in part as follows: "The commanding officers of any regiment, battalion, company, troop or battery may arrest any member of his command for the violation of any order, regulations or law for the government of the Ohio National guards and may authorize, in writing any constable or police officer of the city or township where such violation occurs, to arrest any such delinquent member." It thereupon falls to the lot of the local officers to take the alleged offenders into custody.

SUN THEATRE.

At the Sun theatre for the first three days of this week will be Ann Cummings in the "Eagle and the Girl," which is said to be one of the finest scenes and some production on the stage today. The eagle is seen to fly out over the audience while she is suspended in mid-air while she is singing a song. Edward Bigby, a comedian who will represent east of President Taft. FANS WATCHING MAJOR LEAGUES OPEN;
UPSETS IN BOTH LEAGUES PREDICTED

The eyes of all fandom are centered on the opening games in the major leagues. Many upsets are predicted, and some of the last division teams may jump to near the top in the 1912 season. Four of the veteran managers who will again be on the diamond directing their team with all the skill which their experience has taught them are Connie Mack, Clark Griffith, Fred Clark and Roger Bresnahan.

to-th-at-t

Jack's Appointments.

Chicago, April 7.—Jack Johnson will not meet Al Palmer in New York in the near future. This is the announcement he made today, following a conference last night with Jack Curley, promoter of the championship battle between Johnson and Flynn.

Curley's talk convinced Johnson that the big battle will really be staged July 4. The site will be announced within the next two weeks. Las Vegas, N. M., and Juarez, Mexico are the two most likely places.

Reds Booked For Three Games.

Cincinnati, April 8.—The Cincinnati Reds were booked to start today on a three game series with the Detroit Tigers that will wind up the spring training season. The Tigers arrived this morning from Toledo. The Reds defeated the Boston Americans, 6 to 2, yesterday. Babe Ruth pitched five innings against Boston and did not allow a hit.

The White Sox.

Des Moines, Ia., April 8.—The Chicago White Sox arrived here early today for a two game series with Frank Isbell's new team. Callahan is expected to do the last of the pruning of his list of athletes here. Before a crowd of 5,000 people the Sox slaughtered the St. Joe team yesterday, 7 to 1. The fans came for miles around to see Ed Walsh pitch.

The news comes that the Sultan of Morocco has agreed to a French protectorate. "Agreed" is good.

Managers for all presidential candidates made a new set of "final statements" today. Taft's managers claim a practically solid delegation for the Chicago convention. Roosevelt's supporters claim 56 out of the 58 delegates from Illinois. La Follette managers expect to make a big showing but give no figures in their claims.

Governor Woodrow Wilson's managers today claimed he will carry the state and most of the districts in Chicago. His followers are confident of carrying Cook county and claim they will make a creditable showing in the rest of the state.

OTHER SPORTS

New U. S. League.

New York, April 8.—The United States league, the new independent baseball organization, will open its season May 1 and close on September 28, according to the schedule made public here today. The teams on the circuit are New York, Washington, Reading, Richmond, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Cincinnati and Chicago.

To Abandon South.

New York, April 8.—The south is to be abandoned by the New York Americans as a spring training ground. Next spring, the Highlanders will go to Bermuda where they will train on a big cricket field which has been leased by the Jersey City International league club for five years, according to information here today.

Pirates at K. C.

Kansas City, Mo., April 8.—Kansas City 4; Pirates 7; and the largest crowd that ever saw an exhibition Pirate game—this combination today brought joy to the Buccaneer hearts. It was yesterday's result. Miller's batting was a feature. Hendrix did well on the mound.

Louisville, Ky., April 8.—The Cleveland Naps, who failed to beat Memphis in nine innings yesterday, but won in the eleventh, and then went out and helped in rescuing home victims, arrived here this morning for one game. After tomorrow's game in Indianapolis the Clevelanders will return home.

In the civil action of Mary J. Cowan against Clark W. Wright, the cause was dismissed at the costs of the plaintiff.

In the case of William J. Griffin against Samuel Fox, the case was settled and the costs paid.

The report of Morgan being selected as peace maker between Italy and Turkey overestimates even his importance.

BOND SALE AT NOON TODAYSeasongood Moyer Co. is Highest Bidder.

The sale of the Marion Street Improvement Refunding Bonds amounting to a total of $389,25 were sold at the handsome premium of $552.00 to the Seasongood Moyer company of Cincinnati, Ohio, at 12:30 Monday afternoon. The sale was made by Auditor Harry E. Mason in the presence of the Mayor and the Finance Committee. Eleven bids were opened. Powhatan Belling of the Well, Roth & Co., of Cincinnati, was the only representative on the scene.

The bid of Reed & Harrison, of Cleveland, was irregular in as much as they had mistaken the issue for $3792, instead of the actual issue of $3892. The list of ten other bidders and their respective premiums submitted follows: Seasongood Moyer, of Cincinnati, $552; The Citizens National Bank, of Wooster, $512.50; Well, Roth & Co., of Cincinnati, O., $490; Stacy Brown, of Toledo, $405.06; The First National Bank, of Cleveland, $221.75; E. E. Dennison & Co., of Cleveland, $440.60; Hadden & Miller, of Cleveland, $399; Otis & Hough, of Cleveland, $305; E. H. Rollin & Son, of Chicago, $208.58 and S. A. Kean, of Chicago, $101.60.

Where do Your Apples Go?

The time has passed when good fruit could be produced with little or no attention to the growing. Now fruits are good or bad, the extent of either depending on the methods of culture and care you adopt. To obtain the better grade you must spray systematically and Sherwin-Williams Insecticides will give satisfactory and economical results.
